Hopper Joint is a bold statement of cultural pride and an invitation to explore the rich tapestry of Sri Lankan life through its flavours, sounds, and stories. Welcome to our Hopper Party!

SO. HOW DOES IT ALL WORK?

Our 'Hopper Set' is your own personal feast.
You simply choose your two curries. It's a hands-on dining experience.

Before your Hopper Set, you may wish to choose a couple of 'Short Eats' - small snacks, we suggest something fresh and something fried for a great balance.

And remember, if you need anything at all, from another round of cocktails to one of us explaining how to eat your hoppers, simply ring your bell - thats what they are there for! However, with great power comes great responsibility: misuse of the bell incurs a small 'fine' of $2 which will be donated to this seasons chosen charity - Beyond Blue.

We can't wait to create lasting memories together at Hopper Joint.

Like clockwork at the end of every meal, Brem's dad Chris always yells "what's for bonus". Of course he means dessert and to be honest, it doesn't matter what anyone HAS made for dessert, all he wants is his favourite – vanilla ice cream with chocolate sauce.

CHRIS' ICE-CREAM SUNDAE
MANGO FLUFF vgn
Brem's grandmother, Patti, always made this pudding which is far from Sri Lankan and included far too much food colouring. This 'fluff' is a tribute to her.

GOLDEN SYRUP DUMPLINGS w/ Cardamom Ice Cream $17,9

The very first meeting of Jason & Brem's parents – Brem mentioned to them that Jason was a chef – Sushila, Brems mum said perhaps Jason could do dessert – of which he never eats or cook, so the only dessert he really knew how to do was his Grandmothers golden syrup dumplings – they were in a word – shithouse. Floury and tasteless – most likely from Brem's dad pouring too many wines into him – needless to say we have perfected this Aussie dessert now!

Below cakes are available for dine-in or take home.
